About the Project

NOTE: This agreement was assigned from CSI Calendaring, Inc (CSI) to Contitech USA, Inc. in July 2022. CSI Calendaring, Inc (CSI), a 35-year old manufacturer of rubber products, made the decision to remain and grow its operations in Arlington. The expansion project includes construction of a new, 13,000 SF building adjacent to the existing facility and investment in new, used, or existing calendaring equipment to increase operational capacity. The expansion will help solidify CSI's position to continue serving as the number one supplier to its parent company, WCCO Belting, Inc., the largest manufacturer of conveyor belt systems in the U.S. The anticipated capital investment for the project is approximately $4.4 million, and CSI will maintain at least 50 jobs throughout the agreement term.

Goals of the Project

Business retention & expansion; job creation & retention, property tax base enhancement

Current Status

City Council approved the original Chapter 380 Agreement with CSI in December 2019. CSI failed to complete the Expansion Project by the deadline and requested an amendment to the agreement. The Amended and Restated Chapter 380 Agreement was approved CSI in September 2021. CSI achieved compliance with the terms of the agreement and qualified for its first annual grant in 2022. In July 2022, the agreement was assigned to Contitech USA Inc.
